HEADMASTER

Mr. Carmen P. Rinaldi, Headmaster

Dear Friends:

> ". . . Surrounded by a world almost irreparably stripped of any pretense of virtue, teen-agers must still struggle to gain some sense of self and of their future — and the good news is that it can be done."
>
> Alix Nelson

The forecasts for 1977 seem appallingly and unrelentingly grim, passive, bland and neutral. Reality is painted starkly and morbidly. And yet, I know that collectively and individually YOU have substantial character and endless grit. There exists enough sheer good will and determination to turn us around. Values and truth remain. Hope is scarcely lost!

Like Candide, I retain and even insist on OPTIMISM. Let this be OUR by-word for 1977!

The '76 Cross Country team finished with a disappointing record of 2-7 this year. But with early season injuries to key runners, we didn't reach full strength until later on. However, the whole team worked hard and brought their times down. Seniors John Ottinger, Dave Gold, and Bruce Saaber ran well all year. Good Luck to next year's team.

Even though a 12-5-1 record is good, it doesn't show the power of this year's Varsity Soccer team. We began the season slowly because of some new additions and some early injuries, but soon started running over our opponents. Then, a little past mid-season, a slump rendered us scoreless for four games which knocked us out of the State Tournament. The team ended the season showing great unity and spirit. We came back, beating Brockton in a very exciting last game.

Girls Swimming

This year the girls' Swimming Team proved to be outstanding. The swimmers racked up ten wins, and only one loss for the season.

The backbone of the team was the seniors. Cindy Clifford holds six out of the eleven BHS girls' swimming records. Gail Caulfield, Louisa Koch, Laura Frank and Linda Lovering contributed greatly. Spirit and cooperation helped to make this year's team one of the most outstanding BHS has ever had.

Vollyball

We spent a good part of this year rebuilding. Before we could win, we had to learn how to work with each other. Combining volleyball with team work. It took us the first half of the season, but we were finally successful with a 7-7-record. Although we didn't make it to the States, the Quincy game proved that we could do it with desire and skill. Thank you Mrs. Crane, Debbie, Julia. Thanks for the help — we made it!

Although this was a rebuilding season, there were outstanding individual contributions. Four of our starting five will return next year, along with the other four underclassmen. We feel that next year's squad will bring back valuable experience, and if applied, will lead to a winning season. We were happy about the great hustle of sophomore Kim Richards, the aggressive rebounds of freshman Heidi Kelly, and the penetrating ability of Senior Laurie Mann. There was also the always consistant play of high scoring sophomore center, Karolyn Kirby. If the players continue to improve, this year's losing season will be the base for better seasons in the future.

BASKETBALL

This year was not a disappointment for us. Through hard work, good spirit, and team dedication, we were able to make an almost complete turnaround from last year. Charlie Ferro and Marshall Findley played consistently well throughout the season. Major contributions were also made by seniors John Siegal, John Domurad, Bob Lipson, and Derrell Cole.

I wish Mark Markell, Billy Pearson, Paul Christie, Gary Larson, and the rest of the varsity team the best of luck for next year.

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

If Cheryl Fay hadn't kept watch for Billy Simmons, if Debby "Jo" Harrington hadn't been so "wise," if Sandy Differ had stopped swinging like a monkey, if Joanne Burns had stayed healthy, if Cindy Kaplan had stopped shaking, if Sharon Buckley had gotten a new knee, if Johanna Wish had stopped trying to catch flies, if Karen Griffin had known the difference between a knee and wrist ace bandage, if Katie Griffin had known where she was, if Betsy Tobin had come to practice on time, and if our coaches, Mrs. Roberts and Cathy Spillane, had set up some equipment, THEN we could have been number one, but we wouldn't have been the 1977 BHS girls' gymnastic team!

The boys' Gymnastics Team had many outstanding participants this year. Sophomore Richard Foster won a silver medal in vaulting in the Suburban League Meet. He had a very good season, and will have more in years to come.

Other outstanding participants were Juniors Andy Holtz, Tony Rao, Herbert Lee, Sophomores Doug Cheung, Steve Burnley, Mark Levine, Mark Cheung, Mauricio Rubio, and Freshman Eddie Gresser and Jeff Sudalter. Next year looks very promising for this young team.

HOCKEY

BROOKLINE
BROOKLINE

This year the hockey team had to compete with not only a well balanced suburban league, but also an unfortunate number of injuries to promising players.

Coach Divincenzo did an outstanding job in combining the few remaining lettermen with the inexperienced sophomores. However, the record of the team was not a true indication of the talent and enthusiasm contained within the team. Many of the games were lost by only one goal, or were tied up by the other team with only minutes to go.

"Times have changed," wrote Cole Porter, but the success that the boys' swim team has enjoyed over recent years definitely has not. Finishing with a 6-3 record was unexpected as five top-notch seniors graduated last year. A solid team developed around seniors Glenn Shaffer, Bennett Goldberg, Dan Tampkin, Bill Silva and Bill Miller. Enthusiasm and team unity won many close meets. The 77-78 season may even be more successful.

SWIMMING

"I'll see you Sunday morning at eight, guys! What? You can't make it because you'll be skiing? I'll forget that you ever mentioned that word!" These are the sympathetic words of Coach Chris Hafferty. A look around the pool, and you might notice a human body hanging from the high diving board by the hands. That's Steve Berardi stretching out. Or you might notice Glenn Shaffer demonstrating the technique of false starting. Maybe you'll see yoga exercises that the team has started to do — you can't miss them. And when you leave the pool, you'll have realized the dedication and discipline that went into an excellent 6-3 record.

This winter, Brookline High had, for the first time, a girls' track team. The team composed of about thirty girls worked very hard to achieve a record of five wins and four losses. Though this was our first year on a winter track team, the cooperation of the faculty and the Physical Education Department made the season both enjoyable and promising for the future.

With excellent performances by Molly Gabel, Narine Tashjian, Jeannine Wheaton, Kim Barnette, and Jo-Ann Thornton, all of whom placed in the Suburban League meet, the team proved to be tough competition for other teams.

Though the new track team got off to a shaky start, the talent was soon uncovered. Without the dedication, skill, and humor of our coach, Mr. Parsons, our team never would have had such a fun and successful season.

Some see track as an individual sport,
And in the physical aspect, it is.
But more important is the moral aspect;
Track is a team sport.
When a runner is out there competing —
He is not alone.
For on the other side of the track,
There is an important group of people,
His teammates,
Inspiring him on to victory.

Practice as a team,
Compete as a team,
And win as a team.
This is team spirit.

This year's Wrestling Team began rebuilding under a new coach, Olympia Tom Kryzak. Although young and inexperienced, the team held together in the face of adversity and a difficult schedule. Co-captain John Evangelakos suffered an injury early in the season, but remaining co-captain Sean Griffin assumed the responsibilities of leadership and had a good personal record of his own.

Fine performances were also turned in by seniors Bruce Elias and Bob Murphy. First year wrestlers Paul Lyons and Aurelio Tissnes, and sophomore Costa Evangelakos and Jed Klein. With most of the team returning, Coach Kryzak is looking for improvement next year.

Ecology Club

The B.H.S. Ecology Club developed out of the environmental awareness movement of the late 60's and early 70's. In the last few years, the Ecology Club has had to deal with a general student apathy towards our environment.

In the past few years, our club has worked closely with the Brookline Conservation Commission, especially in regard to Earth Day, and the acquisition and upkeep of Hall's Pond. Other activities include a recycling program and occasional clean-ups.

Ski Club

Officers — Matthew Sperber, Lewis Schneider, Sarah Schley, Advisor — Mr. Ulich.
The purpose of the Ski Club is to provide Brookline High School students with an opportunity to enjoy inexpensive skiing. The club encourages non-skiers to at least "give it a try" by providing expert teaching.
The club plans a number of day and weekend trips throughout the season.
